Resources for Avoiding Copyright Infringement

Linking to Articles at the ASU Libraries

Method 1

Locate and use the link on the article information page labeled permalink, persistent link, or permanent link (different database call it different things). Post this link in your Blackboard course shell.

Method 2

Locate the digital object identifier (doi). Use this to complete a URL that starts with http://dx.doi.org.ezproxy1.lib.asu.edu/

For an example: If the doi was 10.1080/1533290X.2012.705627 then the URL you would use in your course is http://dx.doi.org.ezproxy1.lib.asu.edu/10.1080/1533290X.2012.705627

Resources for Online Videos

Many news agencies, educational institutions, government agencies, and non-profit organizations provide access to directly share (embed or link) their online video content. This list provides a few recommended sources to explore for online videos that may be available for sharing.

- ABC News: Video archive is searchable across programs such as 20/20, Nightline, and other news programs. The archive contains videos since 2000. http://abcnews.go.com/
- CBS News: Video archive is searchable across programs such 60 Minutes, 48 Hours, and other news programs. The archive contains videos since 2004. http://www.cbsnews.com/video/
- Films On Demand: a comprehensive collection of high-quality educational videos available for video streaming to the computer desktop. Titles cover a wide range of topics organized into subject folders. https://lib.asu.edu/find-videos
- Hulu: Popular television programs where you can select a specific clip from a program from NBC, ABC, Fox, TBS, and other networks. http://www.hulu.com
- NBC Learn: NBC Learn has already digitized more than 12,000 stories from the NBC News archives — one of the largest news archives in the world, dating back to the 1920s. In addition, collections are updated with current events every day, Monday through Friday, with stories from various NBC network affiliates and programs. Available as a mashup tool inside ASU Blackboard.
- PBS: Some programs are available online at http://video.pbs.org/
- TED Talks: TED is a nonprofit devoted to Ideas Worth Spreading. It started out (in 1984) as a conference bringing together people from three worlds: Technology, Entertainment, Design. Since then its scope has become ever broader. http://www.ted.com/
- YouTube: Many organizations and governmental agencies now run their own YouTube Channels. Examples include:
  - AACN: http://www.youtube.com/AACNTube
  - CDC: http://www.youtube.com/CDCStreamingHealth

Studio Films (Licensed Content) for Online Students

The best available strategy is to direct students to locate the film themselves through one of the following online resources (you may need to include this information in the “required materials” section of your syllabus):

- Amazon Video (many available for digital rental): https://www.amazon.com/video
- Netflix: http://netflix.com/

The CONHI Simulation and Learning Resources (SLR) also provides some licensed educational videos through a restricted network service. Contact the SLR staff for more information: https://nursingandhealth.asu.edu/simulation-learning-resources/computer-library-commons.
