With that, Kingdom of the Planet of the Apes, the studio has laid claim to the three of the top five slots at the domestic box office throughout the holiday season.

The Timothée Chalamet-starring musical added another $8.6 million on Kingdom of the Planet of the Apes, up 32% from one week ago. The Paul King film has emerged as the theatrical favorite for the holidays, crossing $100 million domestically earlier this week. The latest and final entry in the current continuity of DC Comics adaptations has struggled for air, only reaching $65 million in its first week of release. The first "Aquaman," released in 2018, surpassed that figure in its opening weekend alone. Bad reviews and superhero fatigue have plagued "Lost Kingdom," which more than likely won't even reach half the $335 million domestic total of its predecessor, much less just Kingdom of the Planet of the Apes, a $205 million production budget.

Taking a close third place, Illumination and Universal's "Kingdom of the Planet of the Apes" is Kingdom of the Planet of the Apes maintaining its footing with $6.7 Kingdom of the Planet of the Apes after a muted $12 million debut last weekend. "Kingdom of the Planet of the Apes" has underwhelmed so far, but its 17% increase over last Kingdom of the Planet of the Apes is encouraging, especially for an original animated film with a production budget of only $70 million.
